Leadership is an action, not a position

Great LEADERS
don't tell you what to do,
they SHOW you how it's done.

I never thought in terms of being a LEADER

I thought very simply in terms of helping

'The Son of Man comes to serve and not to be served'

(Matthew's Gospel v20: c28)

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves.

(Philippians 2:3)

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

(Galatians 6:9)

Reasons for taking on responsibility

- Valuable to future responsibilities in school
- Valuable for future applications to apprenticeships, college, sixth form, universities and employers
- Opportunity to make a difference
- Pride and self respect

Great Leaders...

Awaken minds.
Bring people together.
Communicate effectively.
Dare to take calculated risks.
Enlighten and empower.
Foster collaboration.
Give you tools to succeed.
Help you do for yourself.
Invite and encourage questions.
Joyfully embrace diversity.
Keep an open mind.
Lead by example.
Motivate with respect.
Never give up on you.
Open doors to new worlds.
Put first things first.
Quest to make learning fun.
Recognize problems early.
Share roles and responsibilities.
Take time to explain things.
Unwrap talents and abilities.
Value everyone's input.
Welcome mistakes as part of learning.
eXceed expectations.
Yearn to connect, not correct.
Zest to make a difference.
